Your student's drawing could win your school $50,000 for technology

Doodle 4 Google invites K-12 students to express this year's theme--"If I could travel in time, I'd visit..."--using Google's logo as their canvas. This year's winner, along with having his or her doodle featured on our homepage, will take home a $30,000 college scholarship and a $50,000 technology grant for their school. And as an added bonus, the winning doodle will be featured on a special edition of Crayola's 64 box.

Enclosed you'll find submission forms and art supplies to start doodling!

Only a few steps separate your school from eternal doodle glory:

Get the details:

Instructions, mailing addresses, additional entry forms, Spanish language entry forms, and Contest Rules are all available at www.doodle4google.com

Start doodling:

Doodles may be created with your student's favorite art tool (including computer design software). Please make sure the artwork is completed on the second page of the entry form.

Fill out the entry form:

Each student may submit only one doodle per person, and their artwork must be accompanied by an entry form signed and completed by their parent or guardian.

Submit:

All submissions must be received by March 23rd so there's not a moment to wait!

We hope you'll get everyone involved in the fun. And beyond that—ready, set, doodle!
